10 Years of the Owners Voice Unveiling the Next Decade of Industry Leadership and Action

After 10 successful years as the leading voice of construction owners, CURT is eagerly anticipating the next decade of helping network the construction user community and improving industry performance. We are particularly excited to unveil CURT's aggressive plans for global growth, as well as preparation for the domestic economic rebound. The conference will be held November 8, 9 & 10 at The Buena Vista Palace Hotel in sunny Orlando, FL. Making an encore performance as conference chair is Mr. Jon Dutcher, Director of Facilities, Abbott Transition Office.

We have secured an extra special rate of $169 per night for single/double occupancy, plus state and local taxes at The Buena Vista Palace Hotel. These deluxe accommodations are among the finest in Central Florida.

Please complete the enclosed registration form and return it to the Construction Users Roundtable for processing. CONTACT THE HOTEL DIRECTLY TO MAKE YOUR ROOM RESERVATIONS!! Call The Buena Vista Palace Hotel at 866-397-6516 and mention CURT or Construction Users Roundtable to receive the negotiated rate. A one-night deposit of $169 will be held against your credit card when you call and will be fully refundable up to 4 days prior to your arrival at the resort.

Finally, while the agenda is designed to help you improve your competitive edge, we haven't forgotten the need to maintain perspective through recreation. Bring your spouse and enjoy the Disney Palm Golf Course or the behind-the-scenes tour revealing how the magic of Disney has captured our imaginations. Of course there is always tennis and the pool, or a time of relaxation at The Spa.

Join us in November as we pull back the curtain on another decade of industry leadership and action. CURT is growing, and we want you to be part of it. Check out the enclosed information and make your plans to attend today. You simply must be there!
